Br. Phelps—

The Sem. And. Aug.t 17. 1827—

When I broak the seal of your last letter I enjoyed a momentary sensation which was delightful— But it gradually receded as I read subsequent injunctions The Letter cont.d 30 ℔ as you specified— With it I have taken receipts for you from the following— Henderson 3.50 Blanchard 1.11— Carpenter— 2.12½— Eq. Farrar 9.00 = 16.12½ which leaves 13.87½ for Dea. Newman— His acct. against you wants a few cents of 20 ℔ for Et how many— He makes us give a note at the commencement of the term (for former bills) unless we pay him— Your note or the money would be Equally satisfactory to him for the remaining few dollars— If you would wish I can send you the receipts & a copy of the Deacn's acct.— Our Anniversary is in about four weeks— Shant you come on?— We have not a fragment of news— The Sun rises & sets— we ride in the morning (or ought to) and recite in the evening— recite to prof. Stuart in Isa. from the Original— Sing most melliffluously in the Lock.t and who wonta doubt after knowing who the President is— I have just rec.d a letter from the Pres.t of the Newbury p.t Mens. Soc. to go on this next tuesday Eve. & sing at an Oratorio— guess I shall go— tho uncertain— This said president was an old class of mine— at Dart. nomine Boyd— "Pit & Pit" an plaining board with me every morning in the Mechan. Shop— under the enormous forfeiture of 1.12½ or Six ¾ for Every 3 minutes tardiness & in the same manner are 28 of us Englands voluntarily ad salutem but we dont mind trifles this is the mere "costume" of good health you know it is said by Andover oracle "hurt in literis hurt in the bark"— Look at principles & their tendency— I was mightily "tickled" at some of the stories of your letter particularly the
